Regulations and guidelines for GU card holders

General terms and conditions
The GU card is to be treated as an item of value. The user who has ordered and collected his/her GU card is responsible for ensuring that the regulations stated below are adhered to when using the card. If the regulations are breached or if the card is used inappropriately, the card may be forfeited.

- The card is personal and may not be lent to anyone. The card holder is responsible for the card and for the services that are linked to the card.

- When the card is not being used it should be kept in a secure way to ensure that unauthorised persons do not have access to it.

- The pin code and the card should be kept separately.

- The card may not be marked in a way that enables unauthorised persons to identify which premises or buildings it provides access to.

- The card holder should be able to produce the card if requested by a security guard, or other authorised persons.

- The card holder must immediately block a lost card using the Student Portal, or by visiting the nearest Servicecenter.

- The card should be handled with care. An administrative fee will be charged for lost cards.

- A log is kept every time the GU card is used. The data is handled in accordance with Regulations for IT security at the University of Gothenburg and the Swedish Personal Data Act 1998:204 (PUL)

Terms and conditions for users of the University library
I have read Regulations for the use of the University of Gothenburg library and undertake to adhere to them.

You are obliged to keep yourself informed of the current regulations. The current regulations are detailed on the GU card website www.gu.se/gukort
