Announcement - The Prins Bertil Scholarship for Sharing Knowledge and Experience about International Markets, 2022-2023 (Reg. No. GU 2022/1600)

Students at the School of Business, Economics and Law at the University of Gothenburg can apply for the Prins Bertil Scholarship to fund internships and Bachelor or Master theses which relate to international markets. Each scholarship amounts to SEK 25,000.

Eligible to apply are all programme students, including Master students, who are active at the School of Business, Economics and Law during the period for which the scholarship is valid. The scholarship is only granted for internships or thesis work that will take place in the fall 2022 or spring 2023, not for any previous activities.

The Committee for the Prins Bertil Foundation will evaluate applications and grant scholarships based on: 1) relevance to the sharing of knowledge and experience about international markets, 2) benefit to industry and export in western Sweden as well as 3) grades.

The awarded scholarships will be presented at the Prins Bertil Seminar in November 2022.

To apply, you must use the GU web application system. The same account can be used to apply for other GU scholarships. Please read the instructions before you set up your account and register your application. Along with the application, you must submit a budget, a study certificate and a CV. Letters of recommendation can be attached, but are not required. The documents should be combined into a maximum of 3 attachments in the application system. Please note that your application will be dismissed if the required attachments are missing.

Instructions and link to the web application system can be found online.

The final date to apply for the 2022-2023 scholarship is September 15, 2022.

The School and the Foundation will process personal data in accordance with the GDPR (EU) 2016/679. More information on the processing of personal data can be found online.

Within one year after the granting of the scholarship, a brief report must be submitted, describing how the funds were used and in what way they have promoted the sharing of knowledge and experience about international markets.
